

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

The Newport Beach Historical Society (NBHS) was established in 1967. We opened the museum at the Fun Zone in 2024. Our gallery contains the history of our city's incorporation in 1906, sailing heritage, yacht clubs, and film history. We capture oral histories to preserve the legacy of our pioneers. You can view a virtual tour on our website at www.newportbeachhistorical.org.

The Newport Beach Historical Society (NBHS) volunteer serves as a knowledgeable guide. You will help visitors engage with the rich history of Newport Beach. We will provide the training once you're approved by the board. Thank you for your interest in supporting our community by becoming a volunteer to support our 501c3 non-profit.

Key Responsibilities:

- Welcome Visitors: Sharing historical insights, answering questions, and providing context about artifacts, photographs, and documents
- Supporting Events: Assisting with lectures, exhibitions, and special programs hosted by NBHS
- Preserving Local History: Helping with archival work, cataloging artifacts, or engaging in research to enhance historical narratives

Qualifications & Skills:

- A passion for local history and storytelling
- Ability to engage with diverse audiences, including students, tourists, and history enthusiasts
- Willingness to receive training about Newport Beach's historical significance and exhibit content

Time Commitment & Benefits:

- Volunteer position with flexible hours
- Opportunity to deepen knowledge of Newport Beach's heritage
- Networking with historians, researchers, and preservationists
